WHY JOIN AND RENEW?

We would like to take this opportunity to announce to all of you about the progress of CWEA moving forwards after the "CWEA Sisterhood Mentoring Walk – Global Event", that we celebrated synchronized with other different countries last November 2013. (see CWEA page on Facebook)

Now, with the support of our partners, CWEA is on the progress of finalizing the following;

(1) "3 years Strategic Plan" that will help members to

- a) Ensure a high rate of business survival.
- b) Give impact in terms of job creation, improving the value chain in the country through nurturing high growth companies;
- c) Assist to ensure the sustainability of businesses by attracting the right "business match" with your "business needs", assist in the business development programmes, networking events, access to market, promotion of your company and most of all conduct business related practical trainings that will help develop businesses.
- d) Access to business services and business mentoring to minimize initial investment and overhead costs by utilizing support services. There will be available volunteers and consulting services in the most critical situation that would need immediate answers in CWEA office and / or Sisterhood Business Mentoring Walk.
- e) Access to expert business volunteers that will provide counseling to members.
- f) Access to volunteers that will provide advises and assistance on some documentation procedures.
- g) Access to business information and Cambodian business requirements.
- h) Access to information and process in acquiring business license and other documents relating to your business needs.
- i) Gain technical supports with our business experts with in the members,
- j) Opportunity to create networks with other entrepreneurs. Networking can be as formal as organized training or educational sessions where members come together to discuss mutual problems, or as informal to share business experiences and technical advice, make valuable business contacts, and support one another to build successful firms.
- k) Access to financing and capitalization. Helping start-up companies source adequate financing to implement their plans is often critical.
- I) Assist in Marketing and Promotion by conducting or affiliating with local Fair Exhibition, Facebook promotion, GALA dinners CWEA newsletter, and affiliation with other means of social media, newspapers, magazines, radios, CWEA showroom, CWEA directory, and televisions.
- m) Raise collectively business issues of women entrepreneurs to the government.

(2) CWEA Member's Directory Guide – for year 2014

As most of you are aware, we had initially provided directory book to all members last year, we are coming up with a new directory guide that will be disseminated to different establishments, and use this as a means to promote and advertise your company.

We will need you to kindly fill up the application form that we will distribute to you by email to get proper information of your company, and or you can secure the application form in the CWEA office.

Our directory guide is mostly sought by different sponsors, donors, business partners and business clients that would like to match up with your business. Each member will be given a copy for your reference.

(3) March Event

- * Annual General Meeting (AGM)
- * Gala Anniversary
- * Celebration of Women International Day

(4) New CWEA working office

CWEA just recently acquired an office that will be accessible to all members. CWEA will provide volunteers to assist you with your needs. The new office is located at Phnom Penh Center, Building H (4 Floor), Room 486, Sothearos Blvd, Tonle Bassac District, Chamkarmon Commune, Phnom Penh.

- (a) A friendly office that would be available for all members to visit during working office hours, to express their business concerns, need for Adhoc business advises and support on business documentations.
- (b) Flexible office space where you can discuss business concerns.
- (c) Big Showroom space that we will use to display members catalog, brochures, services and products.

(d) Discount Card for all CWEA members

All members will be given a discount card/Identification Card that you can use to avail 10% discount with our members.

Likewise this also serves as an agreement that CWEA member will honor the CWEA discount card when a member presented this to you.

As we move forward, the identification card will be more useful to other business links and partners.

(e) Certificate of Membership

To authenticate your membership, we will be issuing a "Certificate of Membership" that you may use for your business purposes, but not to any legal issues.

Acknowledgement of Agreement

This is to acknowledge that I understand that CWEA is providing 10% discount to its entire members who is patronizing my product / and or services.

I do swear and respect the association's initiative to motivate each member to support each other, and committing to provide the necessary 10% discount to any legitimate CWEA member, upon the presentation of the "CWEA discount card" to any of my business establishment.

I confirm my understanding is clear.
